---	-------------------	----------	-----------	------------	--

I went to Saitama Stadium to watch a soccer game with my friends last week. It was so exciting. After the game, we found that some people were cleaning. We looked around the area we were just using. There was a lot of *garbage. We decided to start cleaning it. Then a man came to us and said, "Thank you for your help. Let's make the stadium clean together."

After a while, we finished cleaning. We felt happy to see Othe beautiful stadium cleaned by many people. The man came to us again and told us an important thing. "I think it is a *manner for visitors to keep the stadium clean. We love soccer, so we should respect everything which is *related to soccer. Let's spread this kind of *volunteer work in Japan and in the world." We smiled.

You know the Olympics will come to Tokyo in a few years. ② It is a big event everyone is waiting for. During the games, more than 15,000,000 *foreigners will come to Japan. This is larger than the *population of Tokyo! Who will show the way to the stadium? Who will give *tickets to them? Who will clean the stadium after the game? So we need a lot of volunteers. ③ There are many things we can do. Let's help each other and make wonderful events together.
